Vol. II Issue 5

Feb. 4, 1993

NPS Superintendent Rear Adm. Thomas A. Mercer meets with Dr. John and Joanne Ratcliffe who donated a sailboat to the NPS Foundation. (far right) NPS Foundation Pres. Richard A. Miller, Vice Adm. (ret.).

SAILBOAT GIFT TO NPS

The NPS Morale, Welfare and Recreation Department is the proud new user of a 23-foot pleasure-cruise sailboat that is currently moored at the NPS Marina.

The Naval Postgraduate School's Foundation was the recipient of the 23-foot sailboat "Small Wonder" from Dr. John and Joanne Ratcliffe of Carmel.

Rear Adm. Thomas A. Mercer, NPS superintendent, accepted the gift on behalf of the NPS Foundation from the Ratcliffe's in his office Thursday.

NNOA & NPS EEO HOST MEMBER OF 'GOLDEN 13'

A surviving member of the first group of African-Americans to become commissioned officers in the Navy, known in Navy lore as the "Golden 13," will be a guest speaker in the Barbara McNitt Ballroom, Friday, Feb. 19.

"Striving for Excellence Through Education," the theme for this year's Seventh Annual Scholarship Dinner and Dance, hosted by the Monterey Chapter of the National Naval Officers Association and the NPS Equal Employment Office, will feature guest speaker Lt. Cmdr. John Reagan, USNR (ret.).

Reagan helped create an historic moment, March 17, 1944, when he, along with 12 other enlisted black men, were commissioned officers in the U.S. Navy. One was commissioned a warrant officer.

For more information and reservations concerning the NNOA's

CHAMPUS NEWS

OUTPATIENT CARE

CHAMPUS; learn the local rules and requirements ahead of time, and save possible headaches later.

The annual deductible for CHAMPUS outpatient care, for services received from Oct. 1, 1992 through Sept. 30, 1993, for all CHAMPUS-eligible persons except family members of active duty E-4s and below, is the first $150 (for one person) or the first $300 (for a family).

The families of active duty E-4s and below (and CHAMPVA Families) will pay an annual outpatient deductible of $50 for one person, or $100 for the whole family.

CHAMPUS claims processors keep track of outpatient claims filed within the states or areas they serve, until an individual or a family has met the deductible.

A Health Benefits Advisor can help you concerning questions about what CHAMPUS covers and what it does not, about who is eligible for benefits or about filling out the CHAMPUS claim form and where to send it. Advisors are at military hospitals and clinics worldwide.

The HBA at Silas B. Hays Hospital can be reached at 242-5512.

SAFETY AWARD

MWR & METEOROLOGY

Competition was keen among the several NPS departments taking part in the annual Superintendent's Departmental Safety Award program. There are two levels of competition small and large departments.

Morale, Welfare and Recreation Office won top honors in the large department category. The Small Departmental Safety Award went to the Meteorology Department.

Both departments were presented the safety awards during ceremonies in the quarterdeck lounge, Jan. 8, 1993.
